C-clef patterns are regularly repeated through out everybodies music and therefore not unique to each persons copyright. One must edit to achieve a distinctive base line without equal. White out and magic marker are the order of the day.

There will be some duplication of songs to songs already written in the first billion generated music compositions.....so we advise you to be thorough in checking existing music as your responsibility to avoid infringement. In the event of a duplicate the customer with the composition will indemnify Econplusminus Llc from any liability and hold us harmless in any settlement over time of copyright....

In the event of a similar phraseology or two between two customers, there will be no liability between either one and each will hold the other harmless and both select another song..

There should be no duplicates yet this is an experimental product as stated.
